You know how much you owe to your landlord for rent. But do you know what your landlord owes you?

This in-person, interactive session will discuss what your rights are if:

- you sign a rental agreement, or if you need to break a rental agreement;
- your rent goes up;
- you face discrimination where you live;
- something in your home breaks, there are pests, you see mould; or,
- your landlord threatens to evict you

Come learn how you can get free help if you think your landlord is not respecting your rights as a tenant.

This session is provided by the Canadian Centre for Housing Rights, with project funding from the United Way of Greater Toronto.
